Assessment Methods: Assessment methods for this course include a combination of questioning, product-based methods, portfolio, direct observation, and third-party evidence. These will give you maximum opportunity to develop your knowledge in individual support and specialise in ageing or aged care.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

The RPL pathway is available to any learner who can provide evidence of competency for the units offered within the qualification

How will I be assessed?

The CHC33015 – Certificate III in Individual Support (Home and Community) is a nationally accredited course of study.

During the course you will be given clear and specific instructions on what you must learn, how you'll be assessed and what you must do to show you are “competent”.

To earn your qualification, you must be assessed as competent in all the nationally accredited units required by your qualification.

THE EVERSHINE COLLEGE policy on assessment and reassessment

Evidence to establish your competence is produced by you throughout each subject as instructed through learner management system. You'll receive oral and written feedback on your competency evidence at, or shortly following, the assessment submission. Your evidence will be assessed based on the rules of evidence; whether it is sufficient, valid, current and authentic enough to establish competency. Valid reasons to have the assessment moved to another time must be arranged with your assessor at least seven days in advance (7).

Invalid or unexplained absences from the assessment submission dates may constitute a failure to actively present evidence of competency and can result in a grade of "not yet competent" at that time. You will be required to submit an extension request to your trainer. Trainer can grant extension for one week only. For further extension you have to speak to Manager.

Reassessment or additional support

The student will be given two additional attempts of submission. Further opportunity for submission can be purchased as additional support package. This package includes up to 2 additional submissions, an additional 30 days extension to the enrolment period and a tailored tutorial (optional) with a trainer .The tailored tutorial (optional) would allow up to 2 online sessions of 15 - 30 minutes each with a trainer to work through key concepts to ensure that the student will be supported in developing the knowledge to assist in completing the unit. This will be online contact with trainer.

Please note that trainers will not provide answers to assessment questions at any point to students but will provide guidance and support along the pathway to success.

Reasonable Adjustments

We recognise the need to make reasonable adjustments within our assessment and learning environments to meet your individual needs. If you need to speak confidentially to someone about your individual needs please contact your trainer or the Academic Manager in writing via email to evershine.training@gmail.com

Plagiarism

Students have a responsibility to complete all assessment tasks honestly, without any form of cheating, plagiarism or violation of copyright. Failure to uphold this responsibility can lead to suspension or expulsion depending on the severity of the offence. For more information regarding what constitutes as “copyright”, please consult your teacher.

Student appeals and grievances

The Student Handbook contains all information about appeals and grievances. Students are required to read and understand these policies. The Handbook can be found on the website. Grievances and appeals may be directed to your Trainer who will contact the appropriate person to assist.

Staff access

Teaching staff will be available to you during the nominated class times.

Any special appointments to talk to your trainer can be requested and organised through your Academic Manager.

Text books

Textbooks are provided for each course to compliment your learning program/s after your enrolment when Student Services Coordinator has taken your holding fee as a security deposit for book.

Special requirements

If you have any special requirements (such as medical requirements) that are important for your study, be sure to inform your Trainer and Coordinator so we might provide the best learning experience we can.

First Aid

The Evershine College has certified first aid officers on each campus at any time.

Any situations that require first aid must be reported immediately to the Student Services Coordinator and one of our first aid officers will attend to it.

Improvements from student and industry feedback

It is important to THE EVERSHINE COLLEGE that we deliver the highest quality courses in the best manner we can. To help us do this we seek comment and feedback from our students. We also seek feedback and advice from industry professionals. Your Trainer will request feedback through the completion of surveys as well as informal discussions from you during the course. Student Services will also conduct at the end of each term, a student satisfaction survey.

Evershine College wish you a happy learning.
